

Points for Prayer – March 2019

For Thanksgiving

- Preparations for the 2019 main mailing are going well. Three new bundles are on offer:
 1. Three titles from Michael Eaton's Preaching through the Bible series
 2. Three titles on victorious Christian living including a testimony biography
 3. Three titles on receiving God's help to overcome rejection and relationship problems.
- More pre-loved books have been received – this month a collection with a particularly practical and pastoral focus.
- We have received two generous donations towards the £12,000 needed for freight costs; £9,000 to go!

For Prayer

- The Harare library sent last month has not yet arrived. Please pray that it will not be held up in a customs warehouse with a mounting storage surcharge.
- The continuing work with first-time recipients, both the practical work involved and the selection of appropriate applications.
- The ongoing work on the Salima library extension. Over 29 boxes – roughly 900 books - have been selected and packed thematically.
